

The Whys and Hows of the Eagle Court of Honor

A Training Module for Roundtable, Boy Scout Leader Specific Training, and Other Training Courses

by Mark Ray

Excerpted from
The Eagle Court of Honor Book
by Mark Ray

For more information, write to: Mark Ray,
P.O. Box 22314, Louisville, KY 40252-0314, call 502-327-9229, or visit our Web site at www.eaglebook.com.

The Whys and Hows of the Eagle Court of Honor

A Training Module for Roundtable, Leader Specific Training, and Other Training Courses

Learning Objectives

As a result of this training experience, participants should be able to:

- Explain the purposes of holding Eagle Scout courts of honor
- Understand the steps involved in planning courts of honor
- Explain the elements of an effective court of honor
- Identify resources for ceremony scripts

Technique

Talk, using prepared flip chart; buzz groups

Materials

- Prepared flip chart
- “Eagle Court of Honor Survival Kit” handout—one copy per participant
- Display materials, including The Eagle Court of Honor Book, Troop Program Resources (formerly Woods Wisdom), sample ceremony props, sample printed programs, etc.

Reference

The Eagle Court of Honor Book

Why We Hold Eagle Courts of Honor (8 min.)

Divide the participants into buzz groups of 6 to 8 people each.

Say, “The primary purpose of the Eagle court of honor is obviously to recognize one or more Scouts for earning the Eagle Scout award. But that’s not the only reason we hold courts of honor.”

Tell the buzz groups to take three minutes to think of other reasons for holding Eagle courts of honor. Each group should select a spokesperson to write down its answers and be prepared to report on them.

Write “Why?” at the top of the flipchart. Below that heading, write “Recognize the new Eagle Scout.” Then, when the time is up, have each spokesperson read his or her group’s answers. Write the answers on the flip chart.

Here are some possible answers:

- Presenting the new Eagle Scout with a challenge (such as to use his skills and experience to be a leader in his troop and community)
- Recognizing other people (such as parents and Scout leaders) who helped along the Eagle trail
- Setting an example for other Scouts
- Informing and inspiring family members, friends, Scout parents, and other people in the audience

If the groups don’t come up with these answers on their own, you may want to suggest them.

How We Fulfill Our Purposes (3 min.)

Say, “So how do we accomplish all these things in an hour-long (or shorter) ceremony?”

Suggest the following “rules” of effective Eagle courts of honor:

- One Eagle, one court of honor: The Eagle Scout award should generally be presented at a special court of honor held to honor a single new Eagle—not at a regular troop court of honor or multi-Eagle affair.
- Fit the ceremony to the Scout: Even if you use an off-the-rack ceremony, you should tailor it to the individual. Tell about the merit badges he earned, the leadership positions he held, his camp staff experience, and his Eagle Scout service project.
- Involve the family: Consult with the family early and often, but don’t expect them to put the whole event together. The Eagle court of honor is a troop function, which means a troop leader—not the honoree’s parent—should be responsible for running it.

Planning the Court of Honor (4 min.)

Ask if anyone knows the answer to the old riddle, “How do you eat an elephant?” Explain that the answer—“One bite at a time”—applies to Eagle courts of honor as well.

Say, “Planning a court of honor can be a daunting task. After all, you have to worry about not only writing a script but also securing a location, ordering awards and programs, requesting congratulatory letters from dignitaries, and planning a reception.”

Point out that one effective way to plan a court of honor is to use the court of honor backdater in the handout. Explain that a backdater is simply a step-by-step list of what you need to do and when you need to do it. Once you’ve set the court of honor date, you can calculate all the other dates to create a customized backdater for your court of honor. (Note: an online version of the backdater is available from the Scouting Links page at www.eaglebook.com.)

Distribute the handout (if you haven’t already) and give the participants a chance to review the backdater. Answer any questions they might have.

The Ceremony Itself (8 min.)

Say, “As we’ve seen, there’s a lot more to a good Eagle court of honor than just handing a boy a badge.”

Ask the participants to think of specific activities that should be part of the ceremony. Turn to the next flip chart page—labeled “How?”—and record their ideas.

Say, “Obviously, all these things should be done in a logical order. You wouldn’t, for example, want to present the badge at the beginning of the ceremony and then do a dozen other things before the closing.”

Turn to the next flip chart page, on which should already be listed the following outline:

1. Before the Ceremony
2. Opening Period (10 min.)
3. Scouting Segment (10 min.)
4. Eagle Scout Segment (10 min.)
5. Presentation of the Eagle Badge (15-20 min.)
6. Closing Period (5 min.)
7. After the Ceremony

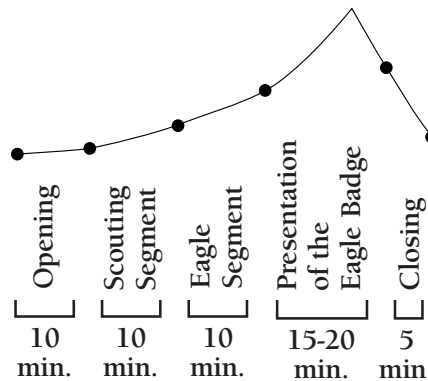

Point out that this outline appears in the handout and then explain what happens in each of the parts of the ceremony:

- Before the Ceremony: Displays, programs distributed, final ceremony preparation
- Opening Period: Call to order and welcoming remarks, introductions, announcements, invocation, opening ceremony, formal opening of the court of honor
- Scouting Segment: A ceremony or presentation about the purpose and meaning of Scouting (such as a Scout Law candle ceremony)
- Eagle Scout Segment: A ceremony or presentation about the significance and history of the Eagle Scout award (such as “Trail to Eagle”)
- Presentation of the Eagle Badge: Honoree’s Scouting history or personal statement, the Eagle charge, the Eagle Scout Promise, the presentation of the Eagle badge, the presentation of other awards and gifts
- Closing Period: Closing ceremony, benediction, closing of the court of honor
- After the Ceremony: Reception, clean-up

The Emotional Roller Coaster (3 min.)

Say, “The whole ceremony should build to a single emotional peak, when the honoree is officially declared an Eagle Scout and the audience gives him a standing ovation.”

Turn to the next flip chart page, on which should already be drawn the following graph:

Say, “Notice that the audience doesn’t stay at the peak very long. Right after the standing ovation, they’ll start looking at their watches. That’s why everything after the presentation must be kept brief.”

Resources
(5 min.)

Say, “We can’t cover everything you need to know about Eagle courts of honor in a brief session like this. Fortunately, there are lots of resources available to help you.”

Mention the following resources:

- The Eagle Court of Honor Book: The “complete guide to Scouting’s greatest moment”; more information is available at www.eaglebook.com.
- Troop Program Resources: Formerly known as Woods Wisdom, this BSA publication includes several Eagle court of honor scripts.
- Online resources: Numerous Web sites discuss Eagle courts of honor. Among the best are www.eaglebook.com, www.eaglescout.org, www.macscouter.com, and www.scouters.com.
- Local resources: Mention any local resources that you know of.

Closing
(2 min.)

Say, “The next court of honor you plan may be your first or tenth or hundredth. But it’s the only one your new Eagle Scout will ever have. The Eagle court of honor is a moment the boy will remember long after he becomes a man. Make it great.”

Portions excerpted from The Eagle Court of Honor Book. Copyright © 1996-2008 by Mark A. Ray.

Permission is hereby granted to freely distribute and/or reproduce this document for use in Boy Scouts of America training sessions provided that this notice and all other copyright notices are retained.

To order a copy of The Eagle Court of Honor Book, send check or money order for $17.70 (U.S. addresses only) to: Mark Ray, P. O. Box 22314, Louisville, KY 40252-0314. Kentucky residents, please add 6% sales tax.

For quantity discounts or for other inquiries, write to the above address, call 502-327-9229, send e-mail to info@eaglebook.com, or visit our Web site at www.eaglebook.com.

Ceremony Outline

- 1. Before the Ceremony
 - Displays
 - Programs distributed
 - Final ceremony preparation
- 2. Opening Period (10 minutes)
 - Call to order and welcoming remarks
 - Introductions
 - Announcements
 - Invocation
 - Opening ceremony
 - Formal opening of the court of honor
- 3. Scouting Segment (10 minutes)
 - A ceremony or presentation about the purpose and meaning of Scouting
- 4. Eagle Scout Segment (10 minutes)
 - A ceremony or presentation about the significance and history of the Eagle Scout award
- 5. Presentation of the Eagle Badge (15-20 minutes)
 - Honoree's Scouting history or personal statement
 - The Eagle charge
 - The Eagle Scout Promise
 - The presentation of the Eagle badge
 - The presentation of other awards and gifts
- 6. Closing Period (5 minutes)
 - Closing ceremony
 - Benediction
 - Closing of the court of honor
- 7. After the Ceremony
 - Reception
 - Clean-up

THE EAGLE COURT OF HONOR SURVIVAL KIT

Ask an adult Eagle Scout what he remembers most about Scouting, and he'll likely tell you about campouts in the rain, perhaps a trip to Philmont or a National Jamboree, and his Eagle court of honor. The Eagle court of honor is an event the boy will remember long after he becomes a man. It is Scouting's greatest moment, and this survival kit can help you make it just a little bit greater.

Excerpted from
The Eagle Court of Honor Book
by Mark Ray

For more information, write to: Mark Ray,
P.O. Box 22314, Louisville, KY 40252-0314, call 502-327-9229, or visit our Web site at
www.eaglebook.com.

Portions excerpted from The Eagle Court of Honor Book.

Copyright © 1996-2008 by Mark A. Ray.

Permission is hereby granted to freely distribute this document provided that this notice and all other copyright notices are retained.

Eagle Court of Honor Backdater

Photocopy this backdater and use it as a worksheet as you begin planning the court of honor. Give copies to all participants so they know what is expected of them.

Weeks	Date	Action	Assigned To	Days	Date	Action	Assigned To
-8	_____	Board of review is held.	_____	-2	_____	Have programs printed.	_____
-7	_____	Chairperson is selected.	_____	-2	_____	Mail press releases. If possible, include a black-and-white photo.	_____
-7	_____	Chairperson meets with family to begin planning.	_____	-2	_____	Call troop families to promote.	_____
-7	_____	Set date and time for court of honor.	_____	-1	_____	Gather all necessary materials, props, awards, etc.	_____
-7	_____	Secure location.	_____
-7	_____	Send confirmation letter to person in charge of location.	_____
-7	_____	Order invitations.	_____	-2	_____	Hold a rehearsal with all presenters.	_____
-6	_____	Develop invitation list.	_____	-2	_____	Confirm attendance of all presenters.	_____
-6	_____	Begin promoting the event within the troop.	_____	-1	_____	Confirm access to building.	_____
-5	_____	Order needed supplies from council (awards, program covers, etc.).	_____	0	_____	Set up and decorate room.	_____
-5	_____	Order plaques and other recognition items.	_____	0	_____	Set heater or air conditioner.	_____
-5	_____	Solicit congratulatory letters from public officials and other VIPs.	_____	0	_____	Check all audio-visual equipment (microphones, projectors, etc.).	_____
-5	_____	Flesh out program and prepare script.	_____	0	_____	Make sure all awards and other props are in place.	_____
-5	_____	Order NESAs membership.	_____	0	_____	Reserve seats for presenters, the honoree, and his family.	_____
-4	_____	Mail invitations.	_____	0	_____	Set up refreshments.	_____
-4	_____	Recruit master of ceremonies and presenters.	_____	0	_____	Position greeters at the door(s) to hand out programs.	_____
-4	_____	Recruit volunteers to coordinate support functions.	_____	0	_____	Check with all presenters one last time.	_____
-4	_____	Distribute scripts to presenters.	_____	0	_____	THE COURT OF HONOR	_____
-3	_____	Order refreshments.	_____	+1	_____	Send thank-you notes.	_____
-3	_____	Visit the court-of-honor location to check facilities.	_____	+3	_____	Send write-up (with pictures) to newspapers.	_____
				+5	_____	Evaluate the event and make notes for next time.	_____

The complete guide to Scouting's greatest moment.

Since it first appeared, tens of thousands of Scouters have relied on The Eagle Court of Honor Book to make Scouting's greatest moment truly great. In a straightforward style, the book answers every question you might have about Eagle courts of honor, from why you should hold a court of honor in the first place to who should participate to what equipment and supplies you might need.

Highlights include:

- ♣ Six complete ceremonies
- ♣ Original inspirational pieces
- ♣ Twenty pages of charges, poems, and quotations
- ♣ Nine planning checklists
- ♣ Inexpensive props you can make
- ♣ Support job descriptions
- ♣ The history of the Eagle award

How to manage a troop, make a difference, and maintain your sanity.

In this unique and highly personal book you'll find hundreds of proven ideas for building strong, successful, sustainable Boy Scout troops that truly achieve the promise of Scouting. Beginning with Scouting's aims and methods, the book moves quickly through every aspect of the program, from troop meetings and outings to fundraising and administration.

You'll learn:

- ♣ How to recruit and retain Scouts and leaders
- ♣ Techniques for nearly painless fundraising
- ♣ Suggested board-of-review questions for every rank
- ♣ Tips for troop newsletters and Web sites
- ♣ Ideas for strengthening patrol operations
- ♣ Where to find dozens of print and online resources

Order Form

Please print clearly.

Name _____ E-mail _____
 Address _____ Phone (_____) _____ Date _____

Qty.		Price	Total
	The Eagle Court of Honor Book	$14.95
	The Scoutmaster's Other Handbook	$14.95
Shipping Method (check one)			<input type="checkbox"/> Priority <input type="checkbox"/> Media
Shipping & Handling (see chart)
6% Sales Tax (KY residents only)
Grand Total

Shipping & Handling
Shipping Method	First Book	Each Add'l Book
Priority Mail (2-3 days)	$5.25	$2.00
Media Mail (6-7 days)	$2.75	$1.00

Mail completed order form with check or money order (payable to Mark Ray) to:

Mark Ray
P. O. Box 22314
Louisville, KY 40252

Prices are subject to change without notice. For more information, visit www.eaglebook.com on the World Wide Web, send e-mail to info@eaglebook.com, or call 502-327-9229.